

How to get your Michigan Real Estate License

Step 1: Meet all the state's requirements as outlined on Michigan Board of Real Estate Brokers and Salespersons \(LARA\) website.

They include:

- Be 18 years of age or older
- You must pass background check and be of good moral character. This implies that you have the ability and will serve the public in a fair, honest, and open manner. If you have had a judgment of guilt in a criminal proceeding or a civil action against you, you are rehabilitated, or the substance of my former offense is not reasonably related to the occupation or profession for which you are seeking a license application.

Step 2: Meet the state's pre-licensing education requirement. You'll be required to complete an approved 40-hour Michigan real estate pre-licensing course which includes 4 hours of Civil Rights law and Equal Opportunity in housing.

Step 3: Submit the Michigan salesperson license application and pay applicable fee.

Step 4: You must pass the required State and National Exam within one year of application after receiving authorization to test from LARA. You'll need to earn a score of 70% or higher.

Step 5: Obtain sponsorship from a licensed Michigan broker. You will need to provide your employing broker information to complete the licensure process. This can be completed online by visiting www.michigan.gov/miplus

Are you curious about how to choose the right broker for you?

Connect with Us!

(858) 329-0999

Facebook | Instagram | Twitter | LinkedIn | YouTube | Blog